

For the Week of January 17, 2021

Weekly Hydro Ship Activity Report

Welcome to NOAA's Weekly Hydrographic Ship Activity Report! We hope you enjoy this reader-friendly layout for our weekly report as we update you on the progress of our NOAA-ship and contractor-run surveys.

Highlights of this edition of Weekly Ship Report

- DEA continued operations in OPR-K375-KR-20 Houston Ship Channel, TX.

NOAA Ships

FERDINAND R. HASSLER

Recap

- Hassler completed her survey season.

Looking Forward

- Hassler is in drydock in Norfolk, VA.

THOMAS JEFFERSON

Recap

- TJ completed her survey season.

Looking Forward

- TJ is in drydock in Norfolk, VA.

FAIRWEATHER

Recap

- Fairweather completed her survey season.

Looking Forward

- Fairweather will be in drydock in Seattle, WA.

RAINIER

Recap

- Rainier completed her survey season.

Looking Forward

- Rainier is alongside in Newport, OR.

Contracted Vessels

OPR-K375-KR-20 Houston Ship Channel, TX

Recap

- MBES acquisition in survey area H13389 with survey vessels Broughton, Sigsbee, and Sea Scanner.
- Survey productivity impacted by persistent fog.

Looking Forward

- Continue MBES acquisition in H13389.
- Potential to acquire MBES and mobile laser fill and investigation data in survey area H13387.

Link to 2020 Story Map

(240)-533-0057 | progress.sketches@noaa.gov
(240)-533-0026 | Hydrographic Survey Projects StoryMap

STAY CONNECTED:

